Remarks: [redacted] On 15 Aug, when the DCI's home telephone was disconnected through a misunderstanding regarding his move date, [redacted] a C&P representative assigned to CIA, was most helpful in slicing through the red tape and having the service restored in less than a half hour. Without his help, I fear the DCI might have been without phone service at Quarters D, perhaps until he moves Friday. Could we send a letter to C&P expressing appreciation for his efforts? Addressee would be Mr. Samuel Bonsak STAT President, C&P Telephone Co. 1710 "H" St. NW STAT Washington, D.C. 20006 THANK
